CORAM : D.B.BHOSALE,J.
DATE : 09.11.2006

PC:

1. Heard Mr Yadav, learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. Mr Yadav, learned counsel for the petitioner, fairly states that the possession as per the orders impugned in the present writ petition has already been restored to the original tenant, i.e. respondent no.2. In view thereof, nothing further survives in this writ petition. The writ petition is disposed of as infructuous.

3. It is open for the petitioner to apply for return of his belongings, if any, which, according to him, were lying in the suit premises when the possession was restored to respondent no.2. While making this observation, I shall not be understood to have accepted the contention of the petitioner that he had belongings in the suit premises. The trial Court shall deal with such an application, if filed, in accordance with law.
